

BLOTTER SUMMARY

1/3/2022 through 1/9/2022

The blotter reports listed below represent a selection of reports made between the dates listed above.

01/03/2022 8:58am This Department received a call from the owner of a business on Manville Road who had been receiving disturbing text messages from a former intern. The party was contacted by officers and advised not to continue the unwanted communication.

01/03/2022 4:29pm Lieutenant Listwan contacted Headquarters to report the malfunctioning of the traffic light at the intersection of Bedford Road and Wheeler Avenue. Verde Electric was contacted and responding for service.

01/03/2022 6:02pm An individual who had been issued a Temporary Order of Protection from Family Court came to HQ asking for the Order to be served on the person from whom they were protected. Order was served on the respondent.

01/04/2022 9:08am Officers were dispatched to an automotive repair shop on Bedford Rd for a customer dispute. During the investigation, officers became concerned for the mental well-being of the customer involved. She was transported to the hospital for a mental health evaluation.

01/04/2022 10:44am A resident of Pleasantville called to report a possible attempted larceny and criminal mischief to her vehicle. The resident was not able to put her key into her door lock, and believed an object might have been broken off in the lock by people trying to gain access. The responding officer discovered the lock was frozen.

01/04/2022 12:42 pm The owner of a multi-family residence on Washington Avenue requests assistance in identifying trespassers on his property. Detectives were able to view surveillance videos and identify the parties involved. Those parties were contacted and advised not to return to the property.

01/04/2022 1:57pm Det. Sergeant Garcia reports he is transporting the discarded medications from the DEA Drop Box located in the Police Department Lobby to the County facility for destruction.

01/04/2022 7:58pm A resident of Foxwood Condominiums reported seeing a man acting suspiciously in the area of the mailboxes. When she inquired as to what he was doing, the man became belligerent and yelled at her. Responding officers searched the area but the man was gone upon their arrival.

01/05/2022 7:56 am A resident of Highview Terrace reports that his wife has struck a parked car with her vehicle near the intersection with Sky Top Drive due to the slick roads. Further, the caller advises that when he responded to the scene to assist his wife, he struck his wife's car due to the still-icy roads. No injuries were sustained in either of the incidents. Multiple accident reports were filed.

01/05/2022 2:05 pm A caller from Academy Street reports a vehicle parked in violation of the No Parking signs posted there. The vehicle was gone upon the responding officer's arrival.

01/05/2022 10:30 pm While on routine patrol, PO Casale observed a male walking on the street pushing a shopping cart. Upon further investigation, the man stated he was camping in Briarcliff. Officer Casale offered to assist the man find appropriate shelter, but he declined. Officer Casale contacted a homeless outreach team for follow-up.

01/06/2022 12:15 pm Detective Zane reports he is at the Pleasantville Middle School to conduct a presentation on the dangers of vaping to an 8th Grade Health class.

01/06/2022 2:15pm A resident of Foxwood Condominiums reports his ex-girlfriend is unwanted outside his home. He reported that she was banging on his windows while he was inside, and when he entered his vehicle to leave, she climbed on the hood. The scene was calm upon the officer's arrival. They completed a state Domestic Incident Report and advised the woman to stay away from the residence.

01/06/2022 7:00 pm This Department received a report of a pedestrian struck by a vehicle near the intersection of Bedford Road and Marble Avenue. The pedestrian admitted she did not use the crosswalk and did not look properly prior to entering the street. The pedestrian refused medical attention. A New York State Accident Report was filed.

01/07/2022 12:50 am The manager of a restaurant on Bedford Road reports they are dealing with an unwanted patron. Upon the officer's arrival, the individual would not give his pedigree information, but made comments that led the officer to believe that he might be homeless. The party left shortly after the officer's arrival. A homeless outreach form was completed with the limited information the officers had received.

01/07/2022 5:42 am A resident of Orabek Lane requests the ambulance for her mother, who is experiencing tightness in her chest. Responding officers administered oxygen until the arrival of the ambulance to take her to the hospital.

01/07/2022 12:51 pm A resident of Foxwood Condominiums reported that she had been the victim of a scam. The victim reports that a family member had told her he had sent her money via an online portal, and when the money did not appear in her account, she contacted what she believed to be customer service. The person with whom she spoke at "customer service" directed her to share her personal identifying information as well as forward money via certain apps. The investigation is ongoing.

01/07/2022 4:42 pm Officer Murphy reports he is on Broadway with a motorist whose car is disabled. Officer Murphy assisted the woman in getting her vehicle to a nearby gas station where she could make arrangements to have her vehicle serviced.

01/08/2022 5:00 am PO Paredes reports one vehicle parked in Memorial Plaza in violation of parking restrictions for the Farmer's Market. The vehicle was impounded and towed from the scene.

01/08/2022 10:09 am A resident of Manville Road reports his driveway is blocked by a parked vehicle. The responding officer issued a summons.

01/08/2022 10:56 am A caller from Memorial Plaza reports a person sitting on the ground in possible need of assistance. Upon speaking to the individual, it was determined that the individual had concluded their business at the Post Office and was waiting for a Para-Transit pickup in short order to take them back to their assisted living facility.

01/09/2022 4:19 am A caller from the Pleasantville Country Club reports that the woman for whom she is a caregiver has fallen, and she is unsure if an injury was sustained. Upon arrival, the woman was helped up and the responding officers were able to ascertain that there was no injury.

01/09/2022 5:19 pm A caller from Washington Avenue reports a two-car property damage auto accident. A New York State Accident Report was filed.