

BLOTTER SUMMARY

January 16 through Jan 22, 2023

The Blotter reports below represent a selection of reports made between the dates above.

01/16/2023 4:07pm A caller from North Place reported a group of youths in the woods near Tompkins Avenue. Responding officers located the group, who were just enjoying the day off from school, and sent them on their way.

01/16/2023 4:35pm The central monitoring station for an alarm company reported a residential alarm activation on Ashland Avenue. Responding officers discovered that the homeowner's sister, who was watching the family cat, had set off the alarm in error.

01/16/2023 9:10pm County Fire Control reported an inside odor of gas at a home on Weskora Avenue. Responding officers assisted Pleasantville FD with securing the scene and checking the home, which was eventually deemed safe by FD personnel.

01/17/2023 7:08am A resident of Washington Avenue reported a black sedan, occupied and parked near the intersection of Pierce Drive and Washington Avenue for an extended period of time. Officers responded and spoke with the driver who had just completed a food delivery and was waiting for his next assignment, and he left the area so as not to alarm anyone.

01/17/2023 8:48am One of the drivers involved reported a minor motor vehicle accident on Grant Street in the area of Depew Street. A vehicle with a trailer was struck by another vehicle travelling in the same direction while trying to park. No one was injured, but one vehicle was towed due to driver's side damage. Officers filed a NY State Accident Report.

01/17/2023 1:07pm Caller reported they needed assistance getting their elderly parent into their vehicle. Upon trying to do so, the elderly parent had fallen. Officers arrived and were able to assist party in standing up and getting into the vehicle. Party was uninjured.

01/17/2023 6:02 pm A resident from Foxwood Condominiums requested assistance due to a possible cardiac situation. When her smartwatch alerted her to her increased heart rate, with no known cause, she called 911 for medical assistance. Officers responded and monitored her condition until the ambulance and the paramedic arrived. The patient was transported to the hospital by Pleasantville Ambulance.

01/18/2023 7:18am A resident of Marble Avenue reported work being conducted too early on a neighbor's property in violation of the Village noise ordinance. The responding officer spoke to the homeowner and the work was delayed to the proper time.

01/18/2023 8:42am A Pleasantville resident came into Police HQ to report that two separate checks that had been put in a USPS drop box had been obtained by an unknown person, who duplicated the checks and cashed them. Responding officers took the initial report and assisted the woman in taking steps to secure her accounts. Detectives have been assigned and a case has been open for further investigation.

01/18/2023 5:14pm A resident of Academy Street reported a truck struggling to navigate a turn from Manville Road to Clark Street. The responding officer located the vehicle near the intersection of Clark and Bedford Road and determined that the driver was attempting to turn around, so the officer assisted the driver to exit the area.

01/18/2023 6:20pm Caller reports that a minor property damage auto accident occurred near the intersection of Bedford Road and Broadway. Officers responded and following an investigation an accident report was filed.

01/18/2023 6:24pm A resident of Brookfield Place reported she had tripped and fallen in a pothole while using a crosswalk on Manville Road. The woman did not want medical treatment, as she was treating her own injuries, but she wanted the incident recorded. Responding officers documented the condition, and the Desk officer notified the DPW foreman. NYS DOT was notified for repairs, as Manville Road is a NY State roadway.

01/18/2023 10:28pm A resident of Ossining reported that her parked car had been struck by another vehicle while parked on Marble Avenue. While the driver had stopped and left a note prior to leaving the scene, the owner of the parked vehicle was having problems contacting the driver. The responding officer took the information and followed up the next day, locating the other driver and completing a NYS Accident report.

01/19/2023 8:27am A resident of Sunnyside Avenue reported that her driveway was blocked. The responding officer was able to assist the caller to exit their driveway around the car blocking the driveway and issued a summons.

01/19/2023 11:53am A resident of Hobby Street reported a dispute with his brother. Responding officers spoke with both parties involved and other family members, and determined that the dispute was verbal only. A NY State Domestic Incident Report was filed, and both parties involved agreed to separate for the rest of the day. The Mobile Crisis Team was contacted and will follow up with the family for further mediation and assistance.

01/19/2023 2:15pm A woman reported that she believed her wallet and some cash had been stolen after an encounter with a person she did not know on Washington Avenue. A short time after the unknown person tried to inform her of an oil leak from her car, she discovered the property was missing. The case was turned over to the Detective Division for follow up.

01/19/2023 9:21pm A resident of Hobby Street requested assistance getting information about her brother, after she received a message from a third party that he had been involved in an accident. Responding officers gathered more information from the sister, and the Desk Officer was able to confirm that her brother was there in stable condition.

01/20/2023 12:01am A resident of Broadway reported a disturbance in front of his residence involving what appeared to be students and staff of a local residential facility. Upon arrival, responding officers found that all parties had left the scene.

01/20/2023 8:34am A resident of Foxwood Condominiums requested assistance for an elderly man who had fallen in his residence. Responding officers assessed his condition and determined that medical interventions were appropriate, so the ambulance and the paramedic were dispatched. The patient was transported to the hospital via Pleasantville VAC.

01/20/2023 1:56pm The Mobile Crisis Team requested officers accompany them on a visit to the home of the domestic incident from the previous day. While the person interviewed was appreciative of the visit, he declined any services or follow up.

01/20/2023 3:06pm County Fire Control dispatched Pleasantville FD to a restaurant on Bedford Road for an activated carbon monoxide alarm. Responding officers assisted with scene and traffic control. The scene was cleared by the Fire Department with negative issues.

1/20/2022 7:55pm Caller reports that they struck a parked vehicle while pulling into a parking space in Memorial Plaza. An officer responded and confirmed a minor auto accident and an accident report was prepared.

Saturday T1

01/21/2023 10:39am A resident of Hays Hill Road reported an injured coyote in her backyard. Further investigation by responding officers determined the animal did not appear injured as it fled upon their approach.

01/21/2023 12:10pm One of the drivers involved reported a minor property damage auto accident at the intersection of Manville Road and Pleasantville Road. Investigation revealed that both vehicles were stopped for the red light, but the foot of the driver of the rear vehicle slipped off the brake and his car rolled into to the rear of the vehicle in front. No injuries were reported and a NY State Accident report was completed.

01/21/2023 7:45pm A local business owner reported a disruptive customer who had become aggressive and threatening in his establishment, but who had since left. Responding officers canvassed the area but did not locate him. At approximately 11:00pm, the man was located exiting a convenience store and place him under arrest. The man, a 31-year-old resident of Thornwood, was charged with Trespassing and Harassment in the Second Degree. He was processed and held for an arraignment in front of the Village Justice. A Temporary Order of Protection was issued, and he was released on his own recognizance.

01/21/2023 9:09pm An employee of a restaurant on Marble Avenue requested EMS for a customer who was not feeling well. Upon arrival, officers spoke to the woman, who believed she was having an adverse reaction to a recreational drug. Officers provided first aid while awaiting the arrival of the ambulance and the paramedic. The patient was transported to the hospital via mutual aid ambulance.

01/21/2023 11:03pm A resident of Foxwoods Condominiums requested medical assistance for her sister, who was having difficulty breathing. Responding officers administered oxygen to her while awaiting the arrival of EMS personnel. The patient was transported via a mutual aid ambulance to the hospital for further evaluation.

01/22/2023 1:00am Patrol officers observed a vehicle being driven erratically on Bedford Road. Prior to a traffic stop being initiated, the vehicle came to a complete stop on Bedford Road near the intersection with Wheeler Avenue. When interviewed, the driver was irrational and unable to articulate or answer questions. Officers requested the paramedic to respond, and together they determined the driver was experiencing some type of medical emergency. An ambulance was requested for transport, and the patient was taken to the hospital via Pleasantville VAC.

01/22/2023 2:58am While on routine patrol, Sergeant Zane observed a vehicle parked on Washington Avenue with its doors open. The owner was attempted to be reached, but there was no answer. After completing an initial investigation, the doors of the vehicle were secured.

01/22/2023 7:53am While on patrol, an officer was alerted by an audible alarm at a construction site in the Downtown area. A check of the area found nothing obviously amiss. The site manager was contacted and responded. Upon further investigation, the activation was determined to be accidental.

01/22/2022 7:18pm A resident of Washington Avenue requested Police and EMS to respond to her residence for her husband, who had passed out and was not feeling well. Responding officers treated the man, who had regained consciousness, and inquired as to what might be the cause. Upon the arrival of the ambulance and the paramedic, the patient subsequently refused medical attention, as it appeared he was experiencing a case of food poisoning.