

BLOTTER SUMMARY

October 10 through October 16, 2022

The Blotter reports below represent a selection of reports made between the dates above.

10/10/2022 2:54am A resident on Cedar Lane called requesting medical assistance for her husband, who she believed was having a seizure. The responding officers provided medical aid until EMS arrival. The husband was transported to the hospital by Pleasantville VAC.

10/10/2022 11:51am A resident of the Bronx requested police assistance in retrieving items from his ex-girlfriend's residence on Garrigan Avenue. The man stated he had attempted to gather the items himself but she would not allow him to do so. Officers accompanied the man to the residence and facilitated the orderly collection of belongings. When some of the items he believed should be there were not, he was advised to seek a civil remedy.

10/10/2022 3:51pm A resident of Hopper Street reported a woman taking pictures of her dog and residence. Responding officers located and interviewed the woman, who stated she was only photographing the dog, which the officers confirmed.

10/11/2022 5:14am A resident of Saratoga Avenue reports the alarm on a black pickup truck has repeatedly gone off for the past half hour. The responding officer was able to locate the owner of the truck and remedy the situation.

10/11/2022 8:54am An administrator at one of the schools reported an unknown man had been taking pictures during student morning arrival. but that the man had since left the area. The administrator further reported that when the man was approached by school staff, he claimed to be with an identified media outlet. Upon contacting the outlet, however, they had no knowledge of him. Officers continued the investigation in coordination with school administration personnel, and the party was identified. When contacted, the man explained the misunderstanding and was apologetic for the confusion.

10/11/2022 1:12pm A resident of the Country Club reported receiving a call from an unknown party that her daughter was in danger, and demanding cash and gift card payments to secure her safety. The woman remained on the line with the caller while she confirmed her daughter was safe. The investigation led to the source of the call being a phone number registered to a website, and no information was gathered on repeated calls to the number.

10/11/2022 4:05pm While on routine patrol, PO Saetta observed a man wanted in connection with a theft of money from a recent charity event walking on Foxwood Drive. The man was arrested and transported to Pleasantville HQ for processing. He was arraigned in Pleasantville Village Court and released on his own recognizance to return to court at a later date. The stolen property has not yet been recovered.

10/11/2022 5:33pm An anonymous caller reported a man eating out of the garbage in the Old Village. Responding officers located him and discovered he was unhoused. He was offered social services, which he accepted. EMS Personnel were dispatched, and the man was transported to the hospital via Pleasantville VAC. The Mobile Crisis Response Team was advised of the situation and responded to the hospital for assistance.

10/12/2022 1:03pm A resident of a dead-end street reported a suspicious person taking pictures of her home. When confronted by the homeowner, the man claimed he was just taking pictures of the driveway and deleted the pictures. Responding officers located family of the man and attempted to secure an interview with him.

10/12/2022 3:29pm The central monitoring station for an alarm company reported a silent residential panic alarm activation on Martling Avenue. Upon arrival, the officer located the homeowner and determined the alarm was set off in error.

10/13/2022 6:08am County Fire Control requested an ambulance for a Tompkins Avenue resident suffering from abdominal pain. Responding officers kept the woman comfortable while awaiting the arrival of the ambulance and the paramedic. The patient was transported to the hospital via Pleasantville VAC.

10/13/2022 9:04am Multiple callers reported a sick raccoon in the area of the Foxwood Tennis Court. Officers canvassed the area but the animal was gone upon their arrival.

10/13/2022 10:56am A passing motorist reported a disoriented elderly man walking on Oak Ridge Road. Responding officers were able to identify him and assist him in getting home. His son was contacted to respond.

10/13/2022 8:46pm A medical service monitoring system reported one of their customers who lives in the Clinton Street Center had fallen and needed help getting up. Officers assisted the party to her feet. She was checked out by medical personnel and no injuries were reported. The woman refused any further medical treatment.

10/14/2022 7:35am A resident of Pierce Drive reported what he believed to be a sick coyote in his neighbor's front yard. When responding officers arrived, they were informed by the caller that the animal had run off into the woods.

10/14/2022 2:37pm A Pleasantville resident reported a beige dog at large on Bedford Road. Officers were able to assist in reuniting the dog with its owner.

10/14/2022 7:37PM A Clark Street resident reported a scooter being driven recklessly up and down her street. The responding officer located the operator of the scooter, who explained he was taking it out for a "test drive" prior to buying it. The man reported he was finishing and ceased operation.

10/14/2022 8:26pm A resident of the Village requested assistance in bringing her husband upstairs in their home. Pleasantville VAC was requested for a medical assessment and to assist in the process. The man was helped upstairs and no further medical attention was needed.

10/15/2022 5:05am Despite posted warnings, one vehicle was towed from the Memorial Plaza lot for violating parking restrictions for the Farmer's Market.

10/15/2022 8:50am A nearby resident reported illegally parked vehicles on Manville Road in the area of Soldiers and Sailor's Field. The responding officer issued one summons.

10/15/2022 1:39pm A Pleasantville resident reported that they were involved in a minor accident on Romer Avenue, and that no one was injured. Officers facilitated an information exchange on scene as the damage was minor. Both parties involved were amenable to handling the matter privately.

10/16/2022 6:24am A mother on Madison Avenue called 911 requesting medical attention for her preschool daughter, who had fallen out of bed and hit her head. The ambulance and the paramedic were dispatched, and officers attended to the child while awaiting the arrival of EMS. The patient was transported to the hospital via Pleasantville VAC for further treatment.

10/16/2022 3:25pm A young man called to report that his mother had gotten her hand caught in a door and he believed it was broken. Responding officers arrived and found the woman in pain with an icepack on her hand. The ambulance and paramedic were dispatched, and she was transported to the hospital via Pleasantville VAC.

10/16/2022 06:37pm County Fire Control reported that Pleasantville Fire Department was responding to Washington Avenue for reports of a garbage can on fire. Pleasantville PD officers assisted with traffic control while the Fire Department extinguished the fire.