12/27/2022 10:41pm A resident of Center Street requested assistance getting into her vehicle, as she had locked the keys inside with the engine running. The responding officer was able to make entry to the vehicle.

12/28/2022 2:21pm A woman came to Police HQ and made incoherent statements towards the desk officer. Upon further investigation, she was identified as a resident of Washington Avenue who had done this previously. The woman's daughter was contacted, and she responded to HQ from her home in Pound Ridge to take custody of her mother.

12/28/2022 4:42 pm A resident of Pleasant Avenue requested an ambulance for her husband, who was passing out and was COVID positive. EMS personnel were dispatched, and responding officers took precautions to prevent coming into contact with the patient. Following an evaluation by the paramedic, the man refused further medical attention.

12/28/2022 6:07pm A resident of Crawford Street reported a road rage incident that began on the Saw Mill River Parkway and continued into the Village. While no threats or gestures were exchanged, the other vehicle involved, described as a white Ford pickup truck, followed the complainant off the Parkway all the way to the police station, where he briefly exited his vehicle and then left. Officers canvassed the area, but could not locate the truck or the driver, and a report was filed to document the incident.

12/28/2022 7:05pm A resident of Bedford Road requested assistance with her husband, from whom she is estranged, who is at her house acting erratically. Officers responded to the home and interviewed the man, who began to make threats to harm himself. EMS was dispatched, and the patient was transported to the hospital for a mental health evaluation. A NY State Domestic Incident Report was filed, and the caller received follow-up on her options going forward.

12/29/2022 1:15am A resident of Sarles Lane reported a large fire and smoke condition on the track of the northbound train. Responding officers confirmed a fire burning on Track 2 under the Manville Road overpass. MTA PD was notified, and traffic and power on the lines were terminated. Pleasantville FD responded, but the fire had burned itself out. The cause was suspected to be salt brine from the roadway above getting on the heating element.

12/29/2022 7:29am A Pleasantville Water Department employee reported unauthorized use of the fire hydrant at the intersection of Bedford Road and Orchard Street. Responding officers interviewed the two men on scene, who stated they were attempting to use the water to thaw a tank they need for work to a residence on Orchard Street. Both men were identified and advised they were not to use fire hydrants for their own purposes.

12/29/2022 3:15pm One of the drivers involved reported a property damage auto accident on Bedford Road in the Old Village. A vehicle operated by a resident of Valhalla struck the vehicle in front of it while awaiting the traffic light to change. No injuries were sustained, and a NY State Accident Report was filed.

12/30/2022 12:53am A resident of Foxwood Condominiums reported a suspicious vehicle, occupied by at least four people, playing loud music and causing a disturbance in one of the parking lots of the complex. Upon their arrival, responding officers discovered that the vehicle had left the area.

12/30/2022 12:49pm A resident of Thornwood reported that his father-in-law has fallen and has a respiratory issue at his home in Foxwood Condominiums. EMS was dispatched, and the man complained of pain in his back and head to responding officers. The patient was transported to the hospital via Pleasantville VAC.

12/30/2022 3:12 pm Briarcliff PD reported they received a 911 call from a customer at a convenience store on Bedford Road reporting a dispute with the store owner. Upon arrival, responding officers interviewed both the owner and the customer. The customer had become angry after the owner had told her to leave after she attempted to play excessive individual lottery games, which was compromising his ability to tend to other customers. The woman eventually left the store, and a report was filed for documentation purposes.

12/30/2022 5:41pm A resident of Ledgerock Garden reported a large group of youths who scared her while she was entering her apartment. The responding officer found a group of kids playing hide and seek in Soldier's and Sailor's Park, who fled upon his arrival.

12/30/2022 10:35 pm A resident of Church Street reported what she believed to be youths in the woods behind her residence with a bonfire. The responding officer located a contained fire in a neighbor's fire pit. No further action was taken.

12/31/2022 12:05am A Hillview Drive resident reported her husband, who had recently been in the hospital and is COVID positive, was not improving. EMS was dispatched, and a medical evaluation was performed upon their arrival. The man eventually refused further medical attention.

12/31/2022 10:46am The owner of a commercial property on Manville Road reported that as she was entering the building, one of his tenants had discovered a man sleeping in the common hallway, who quickly fled the scene. Officers and a detective viewed camera footage and developed a description of the subject. Following a canvass of the area, the suspect was located at a convenience store and placed under arrest. He was transported to Police HQ, charged with Criminal Trespass and released on his own recognizance.

12/31/2022 5:25pm A resident of a multi-family property on Washington Avenue reported a man he did not recognize in the parking facility. Responding officers located the same man from who had been arrested previously, and offered him social services. He refused, and left the garage without incident.

12/31/2022 6:30pm A 911 call was received regarding a woman in medical distress at a restaurant on Cooley Street. Responding officers determined that the woman might be suffering from a stroke, and requested EMS to respond. The woman was transported to the hospital via a mutual aid ambulance.

12/31/2022 9:30pm A local man reported someone panhandling in front of a convenience store on Bedford Road. Responding officers located the same man from two previous interactions. He was again offered services, which he again refused, and he left the area.

01/01/2023 7:45am A resident of Manville Lane reported his elderly neighbor may be having a stroke. The ambulance and the paramedic were dispatched, and officers administered oxygen until their arrival. The patient was transported to a local hospital for further treatment.

01/01/2023 12:51pm A resident of Washington Avenue reported a raccoon scratching at her back door. Upon the officer's arrival, they were informed by the homeowner that the raccoon had ran away toward the train tracks. Further investigation determined that the raccoon may have been looking for food at the resident's back door.

01/01/2023 3:30pm A home health aide reported that her patient, an elderly woman in the Pleasantville Country Club, is conscious but unresponsive. Officers arrived and provided basic first aid. The woman's condition improved to the point that she refused further medical attention.

01/01/2023 5:12pm A local resident reported that he observed three youths open the door to a closed business on Wheeler Avenue, but they did not go inside. Responding officers checked the door and found it secure with no evidence that entry had been made or property damaged.
