The Blotter reports below represent a selection of reports made between the dates above.

05/16/2022 12:10pm A resident of Wappingers Falls called to report that her ride from the airport did not arrive, and she was concerned for his well-being. Officers assisted the woman in accessing her personal belongings that were in his car, which was still parked at his place of employment, although his boss stated he had not seen him for some time. The responding officer also contacted the Westchester County Department of Public Safety for a welfare check, as the man was a resident of Mount Kisco, who determined he was fine.

05/16/2022 1:21pm A health care provider called the Police Desk to request a welfare check on the mental well-being of a resident of Bedford Road. Responding officers responded to his home and found the man despondent over a recent breakup. Although he was not planning to harm himself, the officers convinced him to be transported for a mental health evaluation.

05/16/2022 6:18pm A resident of Church Street who is watching her neighbor's house while they are away reported the front door open and requested police assistance in checking the home. Responding officers checked the interior and exterior of the house, and found no signs of an intruder or a break-in. The front door was secured upon their exit.

05/17/2022 12:56am Received a call from an elderly female in the Foxwood Condominiums who stated she had fallen and could not get up. The woman stated that she struck her head when she fell, and it is now bleeding. Officers provided first aid to the woman until EMS arrived. The patient was transported to the hospital via Pleasantville VAC for treatment.

05/17/2022 3:23pm A staff member from a residential group home requested police assistance in locating a youth who has left the facility. Responding searched the area until the girl was located and returned to the custody of facility staff.

05/17/2022 9:57pm Mount Pleasant Police Department reported that they had received information that a dog bite incident had occurred inside a residence in our jurisdiction. Investigation revealed that a two-year-old girl had been bitten by the dog that lives in the mother's boyfriend's apartment when she and her mother were entering there. Although the girl had been taken to the hospital prior to their arrival, responding officers conducted a thorough investigation and contacted the Westchester Department of Health for continued follow-up.

05/18/2022 09:17am The principal of the Pleasantville Middle School requested police support for a young student who was in crisis. The student was having difficulty regulating herself, and she had left the school building. Officers worked with school staff members on Romer Avenue to calm her down and convince her to accept treatment until emergency medical personnel arrived. She was transported to a nearby hospital by Pleasantville VAC.

05/18/2022 6:21pm The witness to a hit and run property damage auto accident on Washington Avenue called to report a description of the incident. She stated that a vehicle backing out of a driveway struck a car parked on the side of the road and then drove away. The witness was able to provide a license plate number and a description of the car, which patrol used to locate the driver and prepare a NY State Motor Vehicle Accident Report.

05/18/2022 10:59pm A resident of Sarles Lane called to request an ambulance for his wife who was in distress. Responding officers assisted the woman while awaiting the ambulance and the paramedic. The patient was transported to the hospital via Pleasantville VAC.

05/19/2022 3:33am Received call from an alarm company reporting an automatic alarm at the Pleasantville Middle School. Officers arrived on scene and preformed a check of the building's exterior, checking for any open doors or windows. Officers reported that the building appeared secure.

05/19/2022 12:35pm A woman from Foxwood Drive called to report that she had observed an elderly man in the parking lot drop his keys under his car, and he was having difficulty retrieving them. In addition, she raised concerns for the man's well-being. Officers assessed his cognitive function while assisting him in getting his keys back, and found that he was not in distress or compromised.

05/19/2022 4:14pm A woman came to Police HQ to request assistance in stopping harassing text messages. Through a misunderstanding, another woman whose car was struck in a parking lot on Marble Avenue believed the woman in HQ was the person responsible. Officers were able to advise the person messaging that since the car involved was a red Mini Cooper, and the reporting person drove a white Jeep, the text messages would need to stop.

05/19/2022 7:19pm The Mount Pleasant Police Department requested assistance via the hotline to apprehend a suspect in the larceny of mail. The subject was actively failing to comply with MPPD as he entered the Village on Garrigan Avenue. Pleasantville units located Mount Pleasant PD following the suspect vehicle in the area of Memorial Plaza. The operator continued to flee southbound onto the Saw Mill River Parkway at a high rate of speed and subsequently evaded officers, fleeing from Westchester County Police and Aviation Units into the Bronx.
